Cardio Sharp is driven by this relationship between enthusiastic, vigorous play and cognitive and behavioral development. Modified games, sports, and challenges equip students with exciting, efficient tools for realizing the promises of cardiovascular conditioning. Happy, comfortable kids with better grades – that's our business, that's our mission.

STEAM removes limitations and replaces them with wonder, critique, inquiry, and innovation." Hands-on STEAM learning helps build problem solving skills and encourages creativity. ### Robo Gals (Grades: 4th-5th Girls) (Led by Jenny Boucher, Target Teacher)

Minimum: 5 students, Maximum: 22 students

Day of Week & Price: Monday, $275

Over the past 4 years teaching 4th and 5th grade robotics at Sope Creek, one thing has become very evident... more boys register for the robotics classes than girls. I want to change that, which is the reason I created Robo Gals. Using the Lego NXT Mindstorms kits, your daughters will build robots and program them to follow their commands. After completing the construction of the robot, they will use the programming software to bring their robots to life. This software contains command blocks that allow the robot to move and use its many sensors. Students will learn how to program basic robot behaviors using motors and rotation, sound, light, touch, and ultrasonic sensors. They instantly see the direct result of their work, and due to the nature of robotics, girls will learn the process of testing, improving, and retesting. They will understand that they should learn from their mistakes, which will lead to successes. Students become engineers... designing, building, programming, and testing. Help me empower your daughters to realize that robotics and STEM is not just for boys!
